

N.B. : The project work will ordinarily be assigned from any one paper (from paper IX to paper XIII). Regarding Project-work and Field-work directive of the D.D.E. authority concerned is to be followed.

PART I

Paper - I

Man and Society

1. Relation between Man and Society — Different phases of Development of society — Pre Industrial and industrial era, Socialization — different forms of socialization, Agencies of Socialization, Forms of Social organization — association, institution, Community.
2. Nature and scope of social sciences : Political Science, Sociology, Social Anthropology, Psychology, Economics.
3. Social groups — primary, secondary and functional.
4. Social process — concept of self (with ref. to India) development of social self — social control and deviance.
5. Culture — concept, meaning, nature and processes.
6. India's social structure — traditional and modern, rural and urban — concept of urbanization, westernization and modernization. Social stratification — caste and class — changes and continuities — concept of social mobility.

7. Social change and social development — concept and definition — theories — factors and processes of change.
8. Impact of Economic factors on Social Relations : Primitive Communism, Feudalism, Capitalism, Socialism, Marxism, Mixed Economy Principle and Welfare State Concept : Theories of Economic growth, Development and Underdevelopment — Concept and Problems.
9. Social and economic policy — scope and objectives — feudalism, capitalism, socialism, mixed economy and welfare state — major theories of economic growth — problems of underdevelopment.
10. Political Economy in India with special reference to planning — planning as an instrument of social policy — Five Year Plans — their objectives — major provisions of current plan with particular reference to social welfare policies like health, education, housing, population, rural development — Concept of decentralized planning.

Paper - II

Philosophy, Genesis and Development of Social Work

1. Basic concepts — Social welfare, social service, social reform, social policy, social change, social development, social security.